

Moai Sightings

Right: Susie Stephen spotted these two moai in northeastern England. One (left) is from Whitley Bay, where a shop called Blue Papaya sells statues made locally by a sculptor. The other (right) moai was spotted outside someone's house in Seaton Sluice.

Below: Tom Wolforth snapped photos of this ice moai that was featured in the annual ice sculpture exhibit in downtown Anchorage, Alaska.

Below: This moai garden belongs to Myles Marriott, who resides in New Zealand. Thanks to Conny Martin, Gerente of Rapa Nui Travel Ltda., for sharing the photo with us.

Right: Some moai graffiti was spotted in the Auckland suburb of Grey Lynn in New Zealand by the editors.
